

New Covenant Alliance Church

NCAC will be a church that goes into the community, and helps people enter the Kingdom of God.

Welcome to New Covenant Alliance Church! We are happy to see you and glad that you have chosen to worship God with us. If you require any assistance, please ask. We would be happy to take care of you. We love to stay connected with each other. After the service we have snacks and refreshments and we welcome you to join us in the Fellowship Hall. Please fill out an information card, attached with it is more information about NCAC. We would like to listen and pray with you as well. Just let us know how we can help.

Change the World through Praise and Prayer

Reflection:

Brothers and sisters, I do not consider myself yet to have taken hold of it. But one thing I do: Forgetting what is behind and straining toward what is ahead, I press on toward the goal to win the prize for which God has called me heavenward in Christ Jesus.

(Philippians 3:13-14)

Thanksgiving:

Praise God for:

- 2011 and all the blessings and lessons He's bestowed in our lives.
- NCAC and the work He's done this year and for all those who have served at NCAC this year.

Prayer Items - Focus on the New Year:

Please pray for:

- 2012 and as we reflect upon the past year, God will reveal areas of our lives that require refinement and areas of thanksgiving.
- the Elders Board and ministry teams as they determine the vision and direction for the coming years.

Wise Word of Peter (4)
January 1, 2012

We are a community of people who desire to express Christ's love for one another. By love we mean acceptance and belonging in a community that fosters an environment of growth and maturation, to enable its people to make a positive difference in the world around us. To become such a community, we pray together and care for one another (caring), we learn together (discipleship), share our lives (fellowship), offer ourselves (worship), and advocate the gospel (evangelism). NCAC will be a church where the community comes to worship God and fulfills the commission of Jesus Christ.
