

New Covenant Alliance Church

NCAC will be a church that goes into the community, and helps people enter the Kingdom of God.

Welcome to New Covenant Alliance Church! We are happy to see you and glad that you have chosen to worship God with us. If you require any assistance, please ask. We would be happy to take care of you. We love to stay connected with each other. After the service we have snacks and refreshments and we welcome you to join us in the Fellowship Hall. Please fill out an information card. Attached with it is more information about NCAC. We would like to listen and pray with you as well. Just let us know how we can help.

Change the World through Praise and Prayer

Reflection:

Do not fear, for I have redeemed you; I have summoned you by name; you are mine. When you pass through the waters, I will be with you; and when you pass through the rivers, they will not sweep over you. When you walk through the fire, you will not be burned; the flames will not set you ablaze. For I am the Lord your God, the Holy One of Israel, your Savior.

(Isaiah 43:1b-3a - NIV)

Please pray

1. Thank God for Bonnie's reunion celebration with her class '85. She was blessed with a great time with her former classmates and staff at her old boarding school. She asked for prayers for the missionary children that they will know God personally and that He will protect them and their families from Satan's attack.
2. Continue to pray for Dan's recovery from head and hip injury. He and his wife will start their language study.
3. Person of the week: Pray for Pao who is returning to Philippines. He was unable to find a job in Phuket but found Jesus instead. Praise God that he is now a new believer and needed prayer for not going back to his old life style.

Loving and following Christ
August 9th, 2015

We are a community of people who desire to express Christ's love for one another. By love we mean acceptance and belonging in a community that fosters an environment of growth and maturation, to enable its people to make a positive difference in the world around us. To become such a community, we pray together and care for one another (caring), we learn together (discipleship), share our lives (fellowship), offer ourselves (worship), and advocate the gospel (evangelism). NCAC will be a church where the community comes to worship God and fulfills the commission of Jesus Christ.

Sermon Notes: “Loving and following Christ” (John 21:15-19)

This image shows a single sheet of white paper with horizontal blue or grey ruling lines. The lines are evenly spaced and run across the width of the page. There are approximately 20 lines visible. The paper appears to be a standard notebook page or a sheet of graph paper without grid patterns. The edges of the paper are slightly irregular, suggesting it might be a scan of a physical document.

Two ways we would love for YOU to join us:

1. Commit to a Small Group. A small group is not just another thing to do each week, nor is it a social gathering. Rather, it is a community of people who are committed to Jesus and to being vulnerable with each other. It is a band of people desiring to grow in their faith, learning to love the Word and wanting to share their faith with others. If this sounds like something you are interested in, we have three small groups: downtown, midtown and uptown.

2. Join us for lunch. Food was an important part of community building in the Bible. People gathered together and celebrated and feasted. Community is important to us. Therefore we love food! Each small group will meet over coffee and snacks, and maybe even go out for lunch after Sunday Service. Join us as we enjoy food and each other.
