

NCAC will be a church that goes into the community, and helps people enter the Kingdom of God.

Welcome to New Covenant Alliance Church! We are happy to see you and glad that you have chosen to worship God with us. If you require any assistance, please ask. We would be happy to take care of you. We love to stay connected with each other. After the service we have snacks and refreshments and we welcome you to join us in the Fellowship Hall. Please fill out an information card. Attached with it is more information about NCAC. We would like to listen and pray with you as well. Just let us know how we can help.

Change the World through Praise and Prayer

Reflection:

Cast your cares on the Lord and he will sustain you; he will never let the righteous be shaken. But you, God, will bring down the wicked into the pit of decay; the bloodthirsty and deceitful will not live out half their days. But as for me, I trust in you.

(Psalm 55:22-23 - NIV)

Prayer Items - Focus on the World

-For our C&MA missionaries, for their safety, their spirits, their work and their walks with God

-That we will have a heart to reach the unreached, to bless them with the good news and give generously for their needs

-For everyone participating in STM, whether at NCAC or with another organization, that God will work through them to draw people closer to them

-That our hearts will break for what breaks God's, and we will be moved to act accordingly

Bonnie & Derek's update:

After a week of spending time with their children in Chiangmai, Bonnie & Derek are attending the Missional International Church network conference in Bangkok. Rebekah — the intern student looks after Jemma while they are away.

Please pray.....

- Thanksgiving a good time with the children last week and able to have deep conversations with Carlin and Jesse about life and relationship.
- Thank God that Rebekah can look after Jemma while they are both gone. Jemma is nervous about being so far from mom and dad.
- Please pray for Derek and Bonnie as they listen and learn from different international churches at the conference.

"Follow Me and I will make you fishers of men."

About Us

Le are a community of people who desire to express Christ's love for one another. By love we mean acceptance and belonging in a community that fosters an environment of growth and maturation, to enable its people to make a positive difference in the world around us. To become such a community, we pray together and care for one another (caring), we learn together (discipleship), share our lives (fellowship), offer ourselves (worship), and advocate the gospel (evangelism). NCAC will be a church where the community comes to worship God and fulfills the commission of Jesus Christ.

Two ways we would love for YOU to join us:

- 1. Commit to a Small Group. A small group is not just another thing to do each week, nor is it a social gathering. Rather, it is a community of people who are committed to Jesus and to being vulnerable with each other. It is a band of people desiring to grow in their faith, learning to love the Word and wanting to share their faith with others. If this sounds like something you are interested in, we have three small groups: downtown, midtown and uptown.
- 2. Join us for lunch. Food was an important part of community building in the Bible. People gathered together and celebrated and feasted. Community is important to us. Therefore we love food! Each small group will meet over coffee and snacks, and maybe even go out for lunch after Sunday Service. Join us as we enjoy food and each other.

Memory Verse

6 Do not be anxious about anything, but in every situation, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God. Philippians 4:6 New International Version (NIV)
