

NCAC will be a church that goes into the community, and helps people enter the Kingdom of God.

Welcome to New Covenant Alliance Church! We are happy to see you and glad that you have chosen to worship God with us. If you require any assistance, please ask. We would be happy to take care of you. We love to stay connected with each other. After the service we have snacks and refreshments and we welcome you to join us in the Fellowship Hall. Please fill out an information card, attached with it is more information about NCAC. We would like to listen and pray with you as well. Just let us know how we can help.

Change the World through Praise and Prayer

Reflection:

Having made Jesus your all, you shall find all in Jesus.

- C.H. Spurgeon

Thanksgiving:

- For all our previous elders and all the work they've done for NCAC
- For the elders of 2012 and their willingness to step into what is often a thankless role, on behalf of the church

Prayer Items - Focus on the Elders Board:

- For the elders and their families, that they would be able to lead their homes.
- For the new elders, Gary Xu and David Wong, that they would be able to gain the knowledge and wisdom required of elders.
- For spiritual wisdom, courage, and humility to lead the church
- That the members of NCAC will know to encourage and support the elders in the work they do.

Reconsidering Sacred Community
March 11, 2012

We are a community of people who desire to express Christ's love for one another. By love we mean acceptance and belonging in a community that fosters an environment of growth and maturation, to enable its people to make a positive difference in the world around us. To become such a community, we pray together and care for one another (caring), we learn together (discipleship), share our lives (fellowship), offer ourselves (worship), and advocate the gospel (evangelism). NCAC will be a church where the community comes to worship God and fulfills the commission of Jesus Christ.
