

A FEW THINGS TO KNOW

New Year Greetings

EMT wishes all members and friends God's blessings and all the best for the year 2020. Continue to trust God in all things. May God bless you more than you can ever imagine!

January Sunday School

Join us for Sunday school in January for an overview of how to read and understand the Bible. We will provide a glimpse of the Bible, how to read it to understand its meaning and some practical tips to form healthy habits to read Bible consistently.

Finance Department

If the brothers and sisters have purchased something for church and have not made reimbursement yet, please claim it as soon as possible. The deadline is January 12, 2020.

Chinese New Year

Chinese New Year will start on Jan 25. Besides having gatherings with families and friends, it would be great opportunities for us to care and share gospel with them. In order to support this, CNY Fai Chuen and gospel tracts will be available for you to pick up in the lobby.

AN ENCOURAGEMENT FOR YOU

Read: Acts 1:8

But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes on you; and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth.

Reflection:

- Have you prayed lately for the Holy Spirit to empower you to be a bold witness for His name? Do you believe that the Holy Spirit has this power?
- Where is your "Jerusalem" and "Samaria"?
- Who can you witness to this week? Who have you witnessed to previously that you may have forgotten about lately?

Praise and Prayer:

- Thank the Lord for leading us to the start of a new decade. Despite the uncertainties a new year brings, praise Him for He has led you this far!
- Pray for those who are close to you and are struggling with their identity, sin, and/or uncertainty. Pray that God to use you in 2020 to glorify His name in your "Jerusalem".

January 5, 2020

Welcome to NCAC! We are so glad that you are able to join us today for our Sunday service. We believe that the Christian faith is about responding to God's invitation to be in a relationship with Him – this relationship changes everything.

Fellowship, or building relationships with each other, is another important aspect of Christianity. And so, we would love to connect with you beyond our service time. There are a few ways to do that:

Fill out a welcome card

These are located in the pew in front of you. You can then place it in the offering bag that will be passed during service. There, you can leave us your contact information, comments, or questions. We will be sure to reach out to you!

Join a small group

A small group is more than just a social gathering. Rather, it is a community of people who are committed to Jesus and to being vulnerable with each other. It is for anyone who has a desire to grow in their faith, who wants to love and learn Scripture, and who wants to share their faith with others. If this sounds like something you are interested in, talk to the small group leaders. They would love to hear from you! Their contact information can be found in this bulletin.

Join us for food, coffee, and conversation

Food was an important part of community-building in the Bible. People gathered together, celebrated and feasted. Similarly, community is important to us and we invite you to join us in the fellowship hall after service. Please come and sit in on a small group as we eat, drink, and continue the conversation that today's service started.
