

AN ENCOURAGEMENT FOR

YOU

Read: 1 Peter 1:12-13

It was revealed to them that they were not serving themselves by you, when they spoke of the things that have now been told you by those who have preached the gospel to you by the Holy Spirit sent from heaven. Even angels long to look into these things. Therefore with minds that are alert and fully sober, set your hope on the grace to be brought to you when Jesus Christ is revealed at his coming.

Reflect:

- So it is from the Holy Spirit that the gospel was preached to us, so it is through the Holy Spirit that the gospel will be preached to others. How has the Holy Spirit been working through you?
- How do we remain alert and fully sober?

Pray:

- Pray that the Holy Spirit continues to work through not just the missionaries on the field, but also the all the workers (as we all work according to our given gifts) that make missions possible to our brothers and sisters in Christ
- Pray that our brothers and sisters in Christ continue to rely on the Holy Spirit, remembering God through all their works and actions
- Praise the Lord for our missionaries and their continued faithfulness in God's work

October 27, 2019

Welcome to NCAC! We are so glad that you are able to join us today for our Sunday service. We believe that the Christian faith is about responding to God's invitation to be in a relationship with Him – this relationship changes everything.

Fellowship, or building relationships with each other, is another important aspect of Christianity. And so, we would love to connect with you beyond our service time. There are a few ways to do that:

Fill out a welcome card

These are located in the pew in front of you. You can then place it in the offering bag that will be passed during service. There, you can leave us your contact information, comments, or questions. We will be sure to reach out to you!

Join a small group

A small group is more than just a social gathering. Rather, it is a community of people who are committed to Jesus and to being vulnerable with each other. It is for anyone who has a desire to grow in their faith, who wants to love and learn Scripture, and who wants to share their faith with others. If this sounds like something you are interested in, talk to the small group leaders. They would love to hear from you! Their contact information can be found in this bulletin.

Join us for food, coffee, and conversation

Food was an important part of community-building in the Bible. People gathered together, celebrated and feasted. Similarly, community is important to us and we invite you to join us in the fellowship hall after service. Please come and sit in on a small group as we eat, drink, and continue the conversation that today's service started.
